GRIGOL ROBAKIDZE UNIVERSITY

Brief Information

Grigol Robakidze University was established in 1992. Graduates of the University have opportunity to meet with the demands of the labor market, as most of the academic programs (on all three levels- Bachelor, Master, and PhD) are of multidisciplinary character. The University performs its activities considering the labour conjuncture and the society's needs. Consequently, the mission of the University is to contribute to the county's integration in the global economic and political space, formation of valuable information-oriented society and development of knowledge-based economy to prepare competitive specialists, persons with sense of citizenship, national consciousness, having democratic and liberal values, and with awareness of Georgian and World culture values.

The major goals of the Grigol Robakidze University are to

- Develop internationalization strategy;
- Prepare students and staff who are to be well-informed of other nations and cultures, and skillful in the languages and customs of those cultures;
- Expand its horizons, address all talents and encourage its students and staff to fully reveal their potential in a dynamic environment;
- Enhance internationalization in learning and teaching;
- Reinforce and expand the international reputation.

Why should a foreign student study at Grigol Robakidze University?

There are several reasons:

First – Georgia is an Associate Member of the EU.

Second – Georgian universities, among them Grigol Robakidze University joined the Bologna process in 2005.

Third – Grigol Robakidze University is the only university in Georgia that has the campus of European type. Its architectural conception differs from other university buildings existing in Georgia. What is its originality?

- Like western universities, the campus of Grigol Robakidze University is located in the city suburb, on 15 000 km ecologically clean area (Aghmashenebeli Alley, 13th kilometer, the US Embassy adjacent territory).
- It is not a multistory building what is regarded to be an international standard from the viewpoint of students' security and for creating a united academic/communication space.
- The building is provided with ventilation and conditioning systems what makes the highly comfortable environment for studying any time of the year.
- Students are given the opportunity to carry out educational and creative activities in nonstandard, functionally differentiated classrooms equipped with audio-visual technique.
- A lounge-club and an original recreational space are available to students what enables them to fully relax.
- The campus comprises educational-scientific and entertainment/sport space as well as a dormitory having 101 single rooms. Each room has a refrigerator, a toilet and a bathroom with a washing machine. At students' request, it is possible to place two beds in 75 rooms out of 101 what will give them the opportunity to share the accommodation fee. (Other universities in Georgia do not have a dormitory).
- The University has its representation in Batumi, on the seashore, with modern infrastructure, its own beach. Batumi representation runs several programmes.

Fourth – the academic staff of the University, Georgian and foreign professors are well known not only in Georgia, but also beyond its scopes. Foreign professors systematically visit the University and conduct lectures.

What does Georgia's joining to the Bologna process mean for Grigol Robakidze University? First of all, it means international recognition of Grigol Robakidze University diploma and degree, compatibility of educational programmes, implementation of exchange and joint programmes with leading universities of Europe.

For foreign students it means that they can obtain education of European type – diploma and degree, paying much lower costs as tuition fee and leaving expenses in Georgia are much lower than in Europe, though quality is European.

It is proved by the accreditation of Grigol Robakidze University by the Government of Georgia, a number of international projects and awards that the university received namely for high quality education. We present the main achievements:

2005 - The University received the letters of gratitude from His Excellency the US President Mr. George Bush and the Secretary of States Ms. Condoleezza Rice for translating and publishing Ten Federalist Papers.

2012 - The Rector of Grigol Robakidze University was named as the Rector of the Year.

2013 - The Publishing House "Sakheebi" named Grigol Robakidze University as a "Golden Partner".
